Secretary's Report:

Went over minutes from the October meeting.

Old Business:

1. Book Sale-- was canceled do to the lack of workers.
We will still do the spring sale.
2. Poinsettias fund-raiser
Amy Galbraith has the forms and will get them to us.
Jody will call to get the forms. Roberta will make up the Coupons Vicky and Roberta will work at the table to sell the plants at the Winter Meet the Bulldogs Monday, November 15th from 5:30-? Jody will see about getting one poinsettia for that night as an example.
(Roberta still needs to clear this with Mr. Buti)
3. Honor Roll --Pizza from Marcos
Mr. Morton / Heidi will call Marco's to set this up.

New Business:

1. Kelly did an overview of what the Booster group does for Charlie Bates the new member that was present. He is the only response of the 35 invitation cards sent out. We are glad for his attendance.
2. Charlie shared information of a book about preparing for college. He is going to get us the name of the book.
3. Career Night--Mr. Morton shared information about the career day that will be taking place at DHS on Weds., April 27th. A tentative list of participants -- Owen's, UT, NWSCC, BGSU, along with U.S. Army, 1st Solar, Wind Energy of BG, Bio-Fuels Co., Alternative Energy Careers, combined with area businesses, & 4 Co. will bring their programs. All of the Student Body will attend.
4. Hall of Fame--Mr. Morton shared a possible nomination John Lehman's brother. Vicky Lieswyn also knew of him and is going to try and get his name.
5. Donation letters-- will wait until January to send out.
